

International Physicians for the Prevention of Nuclear War (IPPNW)

World Medical Association (WMA)

World Federation of Public Health
Association (WFPHA)

International Council of Nurses (ICN)

SIDE EVENT – 72ND WORLD HEALTH ASSEMBLY

“Nuclear Weapons Today: An Update of the Humanitarian Consequences of Nuclear War and the Role of Health Professionals in Preventing it”

Monday, 27 May

19:00 - 19:50

Room IX, Palais des Nations

Objective: Renew discussion of humanitarian consequences in light of the breakdown and creation of new nuclear weapons treaties, increased threat of use of nuclear weapons, and more precise studies of health and climate effects of nuclear war.

Panel:

Lars Pohlmeier, MD, Executive Committee Member of International Physicians for the Prevention of Nuclear War, Board member of IPPNW Germany

Clarisse Delorme, Advocacy Advisor, World Medical Association

Adrian Te Patu, Co-Vice President of the Public Health Association of New Zealand, Member Governing Council at World Federation of Public Health Associations, Chair of Indigenous Working Group

Erica Burton, RN, Senior Analyst, Nursing and Health Policy, International Council of Nurses

Magnus Løvold, Policy Advisor, International Committee of the Red Cross