

DR KLAUS REINHARDT

Dr Klaus Reinhardt is President of the German Medical Association. He has been a practice-based specialist in general medicine for 25 years. Since 2005, he has been vice-president and a board member of the State Chamber of Physicians of Westphalia-Lippe. He has also been a member of the board of the German Medical Association since 2015, serving as chair of the committee on the physician fee schedule for privately reimbursed medical services since 2016. Dr Reinhardt is also chair of the Hartmannbund, an independent organisation which represents the professional, political and social interests of physicians, dentists and medical students in Germany, a position he has held since 2011.
