

WMA Educational Webinars
ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE FOR HEALTH EQUITY:
BRIDGING THE GLOBAL DIVIDE
22 May 2025, 3-4 pm CET

The World Medical Association's Medical Technology Workgroup is offering WMA members a series of five educational webinars on Artificial Intelligence in Medicine covering various aspects of the use of AI and the opportunities and challenges it presents for physicians:

30th January	Introduction to AI in Medicine
27th February	Ethics, Legal, and Regulatory Aspects
27th March	Current and Future Applications of AI in Medicine
30th April	Best Practices in Medical AI Development
22nd May	AI for Global Health and Equity

AGENDA

→ Register to the webinar "Artificial intelligence for global health and equity"

Welcome and Introduction

Dr. Jacob Mathew (Kuwait Medical Association)

From Local Context to Global Standards: A Participatory Framework for Validating Clinical Generative AI

Professor Annie Hartley, Director of the Laboratory for intelligent Global Health and Humanitarian Response Technologies (LiGHT) based jointly at Yale, School of Medicine, EPFL School of Computer Science, and CMU-Africa School of Engineering

AI for the Underserved: Opportunities for Impact
Risks and Responsibilities: Avoiding a New Digital Divide
Building Global Trust: Collaboration for Sustainable AI in Health
Q&A Session

Moderators:

Dr. Jesse Ehrenfeld (American Medical Association)

Dr. Jacob Mathew (Kuwait Medical Association)

Panel Discussion:

*Dr. Ashok Philip (President, World Medical Association),
Prof. Annie Hartley, Dr. Jesse Ehrenfeld, Dr. Jacob Mathew*

Closing Remarks and Introduction of Next Webinar Series

Dr. Jesse Ehrenfeld (American Medical Association)
